Application Information:

The correct filing fee (see Verification of Application forms) in the form of a certified check, cashier's check, corporate check, or money order must accompany your application. Corporate checks will only be accepted if the corporation's name is clearly embossed on the check as the account holder. The certified check, cashier's check, corporate check, or money order must be made payable to the "Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners." Please be advised that there are no refunds or transfers of applications and/or fees.

You must submit an ORIGINAL application, which MUST be TYPED (handwritten applications will not be accepted). You must answer every question with complete and absolute candor. Failure to be completely candid will result in the initial denial of admission. If you are uncertain whether your situation falls within the scope of a particular question, assume that it does. False statements and deliberate omissions will raise character issues that will result in the initial denial of admission and/or subsequent discipline under the Rules of Professional Conduct.

You must complete, sign, date, and return the Verification of Application Forms. Each of the items marked with an asterisk (*) on the Verification of Application Forms must be submitted with your application, or your application will be considered incomplete and will be returned.

Complete all questions and information blocks using the appropriate area on the application. Use the continuation page for detailed explanations of affirmative answers to questions or to provide required additional information. Please attach additional pages as needed.

Incomplete applications will be returned via United States Postal Service (USPS), regular mail. An application will be deemed incomplete for the following reasons, which are not exhaustive: 1) if any portion of it is not properly executed; 2) if the detailed explanation on page no. 7 is not completed, dated and signed; 3) if any portion of it is missing; 4) if any questions are unanswered, incompletely answered or missing any required details; 5) if the application is not typed; 6) if the Verification of Application Forms is not completed, signed and returned; 7) if the Authorization and Release is not dated, signed and notarized; and/or 8) if the filing fees are not for the appropriate amount and/or are not in the form of a certified check, cashier's check, corporate check, or money order.

Multistate Professional Responsibilities (MPRE) Information .

Applicants seeking admission under Rules 203, 204, 205, or 341 must take the Multistate Professional Responsibility examination (MPRE) and achieve a minimum scaled score of 75 in order to be admitted to the bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. You MUST request that official notification of your MPRE score be sent directly to the Board office from the National Conference of Bar Examiners (see "Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination Information").

REAPPLICANTS are not required to provide official MPRE scores previously transferred to the Board office.

APPLICANTS seeking admission under Rules 302, 304, or 311 are not required to provide MPRE scores.

If you have already received your Certificate Recommending Admission to the Bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from the board office, then all required character and fitness documentation, was submitted and the MPRE requirement was met. However, if you have not received your Certificate Recommending Admission to the Bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from the board office, then you failed to meet one or more of the aforementioned requirements, and therefore, are required to meet all requirements with the filing of this supplemental application. Your Certificate Recommending Admission to the Bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the written statement required by Pa.B.A.R. 231 will not be released until all aforementioned requirements have been met and all required documentation has been received, reviewed and approved.

Changes to your Application Answers/Address Changes:

If any answer on your application changes prior to your admission to the bar, you are required to immediately, and not more than 10 days after the change occurs, notify the board office in writing (can be faxed to (717) 231-3351) and submit any relevant documentation to supplement your application. This includes, but is not limited to, any change of name and/or address, credit updates, contact with law enforcement or court officials, new employers, or school updates, etc. All address changes must be submitted at the time the change is effective. The board office cannot guarantee the processing of address changes for a future date.

Character and Fitness Documentation:

ALL third party character and fitness documentation, such as driving records, etc., should be submitted as soon as possible. Otherwise, your character and fitness determination may be delayed.

Board staff cannot verify receipt of your third-party character and fitness documentation over the telephone. It is recommended that you have all third-party character and fitness documentation returned to you, then mail the documentation via certified mail, return receipt requested, or by overnight courier (e.g., Federal Express, UPS, etc.) in order to verify receipt of the materials by the board office.

Important: All character and fitness documentation that is submitted to the board office must be an original or certified copy, and must include the notation “Supplemental Application”; otherwise, it may delay the processing of your application. You may use the Amendment Form located in the application packet in lieu of a cover letter to submit all of your third party documentation.

Copies:

You must retain a copy of your completed application and all correspondence sent to the board office, including third-party character and fitness documentation. This information will assist you in the event you must file a subsequent application in Pennsylvania or another jurisdiction. If you request a copy of your application, you will be required to pay an administrative fee.

Correspondence:

IMPORTANT NOTICE: All correspondence, regardless of the addressee, must be mailed to the board office address for distribution. Non-routine correspondence should be addressed to the Executive Director. Any correspondence sent directly to a Board member’s office or law firm will not be considered to be a part of your official record, will be discarded without review, and will not receive a response or action. It is recommended that all documentation sent to the board office be mailed via certified mail, return receipt requested, or by overnight courier (e.g., Federal Express, UPS, etc.) in order to verify receipt of the materials by the board office.

Question No. 13:

If you answer "yes" to this question, you must provide a detailed explanation of the circumstances of each instance, including the type of document, the date it was altered or falsified, names of the authorities involved, the outcome of the action, and a full explanation on the continuation page. This question refers to the falsification of documents including, but not limited to, bar applications or examination result letters, recommendation letters, transcripts, reports, law school applications, and employment applications.

Question No. 14:

If you answer "yes" to this question, you must provide a detailed explanation of the circumstances on the continuation page. AT A MINIMUM, you must provide a detailed description of the incident, including the time, date, location, law enforcement agency involved, and final disposition. You must provide all documentation and information regarding each incident. Failure to comply with this requirement will result in the delay of your character and fitness determination. This may also result in the initial denial of your application, and will delay the receipt of your certificate for admission.

DRIVING RECORDS:

You must provide a driving record for the maximum number of years available, for each state from which you ever held a driver's license, and/or for any state in which you were stopped, arrested, charged, cited, accused or prosecuted for Driving Under the Influence (DUI) or any serious traffic violation (i.e.; fleeing the scene of an accident, homicide by vehicle, fleeing and eluding police, excessive speed (100+ mph), etc.) Additionally, you must complete one Personal Verification of Driving Record Information form listing out-of-country records. Note: Form enclosed (make copies as needed).

Driving records that were submitted with a previous application are valid for two years from the date of issue. You are not required to resubmit a driving record if the document you previously submitted meets the aforementioned requirements, is valid, and there have been no changes to your driving record. Additionally, you are not required to resubmit a driving record if you have not revisited that state since you last submitted the required driving record.

Refer to the Driving Record Repositories list to determine the fee and where the request must be sent. Request a certified record for the maximum number of years available from the agency. Driving records may be obtained via the internet provided they are a certified or true/attested record from the state's Department of Motor Vehicles web site. Driving records obtained from any other internet source will not be accepted. Request the record for the maximum number of years available from the agency.

CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORDS:

FOR ALL CRIMINAL INCIDENTS: You must disclose each criminal incident where you were arrested, charged, cited, accused or prosecuted for any crime, even if: the charges were dismissed; or you were acquitted or pardoned; or adjudication was withheld; or a conviction was reversed, set aside or vacated; or the record was sealed or expunged; or you entered some type of diversionary program, such as A.R.D. You must disclose each incident, regardless of whether you believe or were told that you need not disclose it. Your failure to disclose a criminal incident, even if an arrest, conviction, or sentence has been legally sealed or expunged from your record, will be considered a character and fitness issue and may result in a denial of your bar application.

FOR MISDEMEANORS OR FELONIES: If you were arrested, cited or charged, even if the charge was later reduced, withdrawn, diverted, dismissed, you were acquitted or pardoned, adjudication was withheld, a conviction was reversed, set aside or vacated, the record was sealed or expunged or you entered some type of diversionary program such as A.R.D., you MUST PROVIDE: 1) a copy of the police report including the Affidavit of Probable Cause; 2) the criminal information or charging document; 3) the disposition; i.e., sentencing order; and 4) the docket entries for each criminal incident in which you were involved.

If you do not have a copy of the police report, you must make a written request to the appropriate law enforcement agency for the copy. If you do not have the criminal information, disposition and docket entries, you must make a request to the appropriate court or clerk of courts. You may also try to obtain these documents from your attorney.

If the law enforcement agency or police department or the court no longer have these documents, please send this office a copy of your written requests for this information and the court and police department's written responses to your requests which say that these documents are no longer available. Please note that the court will generally not have a copy of the police report and the police will not have a copy of the criminal information, disposition and docket entries so you will have to write to both the police department or law enforcement agency and the court to obtain this information. This office will not accept a statement from you stating that you called the court and they said that they did not have your criminal records.

FOR MINOR OFFENSES OR SUMMARY OFFENSES (not misdemeanors and felonies): If you were arrested or cited, provide a copy of the citation or docket showing the disposition. If the summary offense occurred in Pennsylvania and is less than three years old, you may obtain the docket by going to the following website:
<http://ujsportal.pacourts.us/docketsheets/mdj.aspx>. If the citation occurred over three years ago or occurred in another jurisdiction, you must make a written request for a copy of your citation or police report from the police department that issued the citation. If the police department no longer has a copy of the citation or police report or will not release it, please send this office a copy of your written request to the police department and their response.

DEFINITION OF MINOR TRAFFIC VIOLATION:

Minor traffic violations are those that do not result in a suspension of license, arrest, incarceration or lawsuit. You do not need to disclose parking tickets, unless your license was suspended as a result of your not paying them. Similarly, you do not need to disclose speeding, unless it resulted in license suspension. Offenses you must disclose include, but are not limited to: DWI, DUI, DWAI, driving while suspended, driving without insurance, leaving the scene of an accident, and failure to report an accident. Charges that carry potential incarceration must be disclosed.

FOR ALCOHOL RELATED OFFENSES: If you were cited, convicted, arrested or received Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition (ARD), for an alcohol related offense such as Driving Under the Influence (DUI), you must disclose it. This office does not consider citations for OWI, DUI or similar to be minor motor vehicle violations.

FOR ALCOHOL RELATED OFFENSES IN PENNSYLVANIA: If you were convicted, arrested or received Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition (ARD), for an alcohol related offense in Pennsylvania such as Driving Under the Influence (DUI), you must submit your Court Reporting Network (CRN) test scores. CRN test scores can be obtained from the Adult Probation Office in the county where the offense occurred. If you are currently on probation, or have completed probation within the past five years, you must provide a letter from your probation officer detailing the requirements of your probation and your conduct during probation. If your probation has been completed, you must provide a copy of the termination letter.

NOTE: ARD is a pre-trial program whereby your case is diverted from criminal prosecution to probation, subject to various conditions which may include the following: attendance at a drug/alcohol treatment program, payment of a Common Pleas court administrative fee, payment of a municipal corporation administrative fee if your case was instituted by a police department for a borough or township, and court costs. When you satisfactorily complete the program, you are eligible to apply to the court for a dismissal of the charges. Although acceptance into the ARD program does not constitute a conviction, it will be construed as a conviction for purposes of computing your sentence, should you be convicted of a subsequent offense.

FOR OUT-OF-COUNTRY RECORDS, complete the Personal Verification of Criminal History Information form. You are not required to provide criminal histories from foreign countries.
