Understanding the Checklist

Reviewing the Checklist

The application checklist is a tool that will assist you in knowing what documents need to be submitted to the Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners and at what time. The checklist will be divided into three sections: Initiating Documents, Supplemental Documents and Third-Party Documents.

The checklist items will build based on several factors including applicant rule type and your responses to the application questions.

You may periodically view the checklist by pointing your mouse to the Forms menu option and clicking Checklist. You should print a copy of the checklist after you have answered all application questions. You may print the checklist before or after you submit.

Submitting Payment and Initiating Documents

Unless paying online by credit card, you must submit to the Board office payment in the form of a certified check, cashier's check, law firm check, corporate check or money order for the total of all appropriate fee amounts. Checks should be made payable to 'Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners', and should be submitted with the payment voucher available during online filing. Personal checks will not be accepted. Fees are assessed by the postmark date of their payment envelope if paying by check or money order. There are no refunds or transfers of applications and/or fees.

You must provide original Certificates of Good Standing from the clerk of the highest court (Supreme Court) of the state or country having authority over admission to practice law in all jurisdictions in which you are admitted. Certificates of Good Standing from bar associations or boards of bar examiners are NOT acceptable. Certificates of Good Standing are also required from all federal and district courts in which you are admitted. The certificates should be sent to the Board office after you submit this application, and must be less than 90 days old when received in the Board office. If you are applying to sit for a bar examination, P.a.B.A.R. 203(a)(3) requires that Certificate(s) be submitted prior to sitting for the bar examination.

Reapplicants: You must provide a Certificate of Good Standing as outlined above with each application.

A Certificate of Good Standing contact list is available on the Board's web site at this address:

<http://www.pabarexam.org/pdf/cgsrep.pdf>.

Submitting Supplemental Documents

Supplemental documents are documents you are required to submit based on your responses to the questions on the online bar application. These items are identified on your checklist.

A Supplemental Documentation Submittal Form for Character and Fitness should be submitted with ALL supplemental documents. These forms are available on the Board's web site for each application type at this address: <http://www.pabarexam.org/forms.htm>.

While it is not required that you submit your supplemental documents at the time you submit your online application, the sooner you submit your supplemental documentation, the sooner your character and fitness analyst can investigate your file.

Submitting Third-party Documents

Third-party documents are authenticated documents that you must obtain from a third party. In some cases, personal verification forms may substitute where authenticated documents do not exist or are unobtainable.

A Supplemental Documentation Submittal Form for Character and Fitness should be submitted with ALL third-party documents. These forms are available on the Board's web site for each application type at this address: <http://www.pabarexam.org/forms.htm>.

While it is not required that you submit your third party documents at the time you submit your online application, the sooner you submit your third party documentation, the sooner your character and fitness analyst can investigate your file.

Criminal - Criminal History

Instructions - Criminal History

If you answer "No" to this question, click Save and Continue to move to the next page or click Save and Return to Home Page to save your work and return to it later.

If you answer "Yes" to this question, you must provide a detailed explanation of the circumstances for each incident. AT A MINIMUM, you must include the time, date, location, law enforcement agency or other entity involved, court and final disposition.

Additionally, you must provide all documentation and information regarding each incident. Failure to comply with this requirement will result in the delay of your character and fitness determination.

FOR ALL CRIMINAL INCIDENTS: You must disclose each criminal incident where you were arrested, charged, cited, accused or prosecuted for any crime, even if: the charges were dismissed; or you were acquitted or pardoned; or adjudication was withheld; or a conviction was reversed, set aside or vacated; or the record was sealed or expunged; or you entered some type of diversionary program, such as A.R.D. You must disclose each incident, regardless of whether you believe or were told that you need not disclose it. Your failure to disclose a criminal incident, even if an arrest, conviction, or sentence has been legally sealed or expunged from your record, will be considered a character and fitness issue and may result in a denial of your bar application.

FOR MISDEMEANORS OR FELONIES: If you were arrested, cited or charged, even if the charge was later reduced, withdrawn, diverted, dismissed, you were acquitted or pardoned, adjudication was withheld, a conviction was reversed, set aside or vacated, the record was sealed or expunged or you entered some type of diversionary program such as A.R.D., you MUST PROVIDE: 1) a copy of the police report including the Affidavit of Probable Cause; 2) the criminal information or charging document; 3) the disposition; i.e., sentencing order; and 4) the docket entries for each criminal incident in which you were involved; and 5) a certified criminal history record.

If you do not have a copy of the police report, you must make a written request to the appropriate law enforcement agency for the copy. If you do not have the criminal information, disposition and docket entries, you must make a request to the appropriate court or clerk of courts. You may also try to obtain these documents from your attorney.

If the law enforcement agency or police department or the court no longer have these documents, please send this office a copy of your written requests for this information and the court and police department's written responses to your requests which say that these documents are no longer available. Please note that the court will generally not have a copy of the police report and the police will not have a copy of the criminal information, disposition and docket entries so you will have to write to both the police department or law enforcement agency and the court to obtain this information. This office will not accept a statement from you stating that you called the court and they said that they did not have your criminal records.

If you were arrested, cited or charged, even if the charge was later reduced, withdrawn, diverted, dismissed, you were acquitted or pardoned, adjudication was withheld, a conviction was reversed, set aside or vacated, the record was sealed or expunged or you entered some type of diversionary program such as A.R.D., you MUST provide a certified criminal history record (unattested copies will not be accepted) for the maximum number of years available, for each state in which you have lived, worked, attended school, or served in the military for six months or more (cumulative) from the age of 16 until the present. Even if the criminal incident occurred in a state that you did not reside in for six months or more, you must provide a certified criminal history record from that state. (This does not include minor traffic violations).

FOR MINOR OFFENSES OR SUMMARY OFFENSES (not misdemeanors and felonies): If you were arrested or cited, provide a copy of the citation or docket showing the disposition. If the summary offense occurred in Pennsylvania and is less than three years old, you may obtain the docket by going to the following website: <http://ujportal.pacourts.us/docketsheets/mdj.aspx>. If the citation occurred over three years ago or occurred in another jurisdiction, you must make a written request for a copy of your citation or police report from the police department that issued the citation. If the police department no longer has a copy of the citation or police report or will not release it, please send this office a copy of your written request to the police department and their response. If your history includes only summary or minor offenses, and no misdemeanors or felonies, you do not need to provide certified criminal history records. If you were arrested, cited, or charged with a misdemeanor or felony, even if it was reduced to a summary offense or a conviction did not result, you must provide certified criminal history record(s).

DEFINITION OF MINOR TRAFFIC VIOLATION:

Minor traffic violations are those that do not result in a suspension of license, arrest, incarceration or lawsuit. You do not need to disclose parking tickets, unless your license was suspended as a result of your not paying them. Similarly, you do not need to disclose speeding, unless it resulted in license suspension. Offenses you must disclose include, but are not limited to: DWI, DUI, DWAI, driving while suspended, driving without insurance, leaving the scene of an accident, and failure to report an accident. Charges that carry potential incarceration must be disclosed.

FOR ALCOHOL RELATED OFFENSES: If you were cited, convicted, arrested or received Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition (ARD), for an alcohol related offense such as Driving Under the Influence (DUI), you must disclose it. This office does not consider citations for OWI, DUI or similar to be minor motor vehicle violations.

FOR ALCOHOL RELATED OFFENSES IN PENNSYLVANIA: If you were convicted, arrested or received Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition (ARD), for an alcohol related offense in Pennsylvania such as Driving Under the Influence (DUI), you must submit your Court Reporting Network (CRN) test scores. CRN test scores can be obtained from the Adult Probation Office in the county where the offense occurred. If you are currently on probation, or have completed probation within the past five years, you must provide a letter from your probation officer detailing the requirements of your probation and your conduct during probation. If your probation has been completed, you must provide a copy of the termination letter.

NOTE: ARD is a pre-trial program whereby your case is diverted from criminal prosecution to probation, subject to various conditions which may include the following: attendance at a drug/alcohol treatment program, payment of a Common Pleas court administrative fee, payment of a municipal corporation administrative fee if your case was instituted by a police department for a borough or township, and court costs. When you satisfactorily complete the program, you are eligible to apply to the court for a dismissal of the charges. Although acceptance into the ARD program does not constitute a conviction, it will be construed as a conviction for purposes of computing your sentence, should you be convicted of a subsequent offense.

OBTAINING CERTIFIED CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORDS: To obtain Pennsylvania criminal history records please visit the Pennsylvania State Police's website at <http://www.psp.state.pa.us>. For out-of-state records, refer to the Criminal History Record Repositories list on the board's website at <http://www.pabarexam.org/pdf/CRRep.pdf> and contact the repository to determine: 1) whether criminal records are provided; 2) the fee; 3) where the request must be sent; and 4) whether fingerprints are required. The information on the repository list may have changed since the last update. Contact the criminal history record repositories as soon as possible, due to the length of time some states require to process such requests. If fingerprints are required, you should contact a law enforcement agency (i.e., local or state police, or federal agencies such as FBI, Federal Marshals, etc.) to make arrangements to have the fingerprint card completed. You should inform the law enforcement agency that you are required to obtain a criminal history record from another state because you are applying to take the Pennsylvania bar examination. Criminal histories downloaded from the Internet that do not meet the requirement of being obtained from a state's State Police website will not be accepted.

If you need to obtain a record from a state that does not release criminal history records for bar application purposes, you must satisfy the requirement by completing one Personal Verification of Criminal History Information form (available on the board's website or the forms menu bar above listing each jurisdiction attesting to the fact that the state does not provide the information and that you: 1) have no criminal history record in that jurisdiction, or 2) have listed all criminal arrests and/or prosecutions that you have had in that jurisdiction. Do not complete the form for states that will provide a record as it will be considered a false statement.

FOR OUT-OF-COUNTRY RECORDS, complete the Personal Verification of Criminal History Information form. You are not required to provide criminal histories from foreign countries. Personal Verification of Criminal History Information forms for each application type are available on the Board's web site at this address: <http://www.pabarexam.org/forms.htm>.

REAPPLICANTS: Criminal history records that were submitted with a previous application for a state in which you lived, worked, attended school, or served in the military for six months or more (cumulative) are valid for two years from the date of issue. Reapplicants are not required to resubmit a criminal history record if the document you previously submitted is valid, and there have been no changes to your criminal history record. Why am I required to provide my Social Security Number?

The online bar application must be able to determine your eligibility to apply as a first-time applicant or a reapplicant. The combination of your Social Security Number, last name, and date of birth is the only method to uniquely identify you as a reapplicant (or, conversely, that you have not applied to the Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners before and are, therefore, a new applicant). Foreign applicants may not have a Social Security Number assigned to them, so a checkbox is provided allowing them to continue the application process without requiring an SSN entry.

Requiring you to provide your Social Security Number is also an added level of security to ensure that unauthorized persons are not able to log into the application and view your data.

How secure is my online bar application data?

The online bar application is hosted by the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts, an agency of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania responsible for, among other things, judicial automation throughout the Commonwealth. AOPC requires that you use a secure browser with 128-bit secure socket layer (SSL) encryption. 128-bit SSL browsers have the highest level of encryption and are over a trillion times more secure than the next best form of encryption.

In addition, your application data is saved behind multiple firewall layers between the internet and AOPC. Each firewall interrogates each message and only allows legitimate messages to pass through it to AOPC. Any other requests are refused before they can ever reach AOPC systems. For this reason, "hackers" trying to get into AOPC systems should be stopped at the firewalls.

Finally, AOPC constantly evaluates the latest in security technologies and upgrades its systems whenever relevant improvements become available.

How do I know if my application was received?

When you submit your online bar application, you will be presented with the Payment page and receive an email confirming that your application was submitted. However, your application will not be accepted until your payment is received by the Board office. Processing of applications is conducted in order of submission; it often takes a number of weeks for your application to be accepted by the Board office.

Once your payment and initiating documents are received by the Board office, a representative will retrieve your online bar application. Once your application is accepted, an email will be sent to you from the Board office confirming the acceptance of your application. PLEASE DO NOT CALL THE BOARD OFFICE TO CONFIRM RECEIPT OF YOUR APPLICATION.

What if I need more than 2,000 characters to explain an incident?

The allowable characters, 2,000, is nearly $\frac{3}{4}$ of an 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 11 page typed in 11 point font with 1 inch margins. It is expected that any explanations of single incidents can be explained in this amount of space. Please be complete, but concise, in your explanations.

The instructions for each question will provide you with the type of information you should provide when offering an explanation for an incident. Remember to add a new explanation for each incident. For example, do not explain 3 different incidents of arrest using one explanation box. Use a separate explanation box for each of the 3 incidents.

As a reapplicant, I can change my address, but not my name using the online bar application. Why not?

Knowing the identity of bar applicants is an extremely important part of the evaluation process. The Board must be informed of name changes in writing and supporting documentation must be submitted to substantiate the name change (marriage certificates, court orders, etc.). For this reason, the online bar application cannot be used to make such changes. However, once the Board has registered your name change, the online bar application will reflect the change.

I am a reapplicant and have provided my incident explanations on a prior paper application. Why don't I see my explanations on the online application?

Explanations you provided on a prior paper application were not transcribed into a computer system. For this reason, they are not available to display to you on the online bar application. However, placeholders for your explanations are visible for application questions where you had previously responded "Yes" to a question.

As a reapplicant, it is not necessary for you to repeat explanations you have provided previously on a paper application. HOWEVER, YOU ARE REQUIRED TO PROVIDE EXPLANATIONS FOR ANY NEW INCIDENTS THAT HAVE OCCURRED SINCE YOUR LAST APPLICATION.
